| |
|---|
| Course: BSc(Hons) Applied Software Development (UI310) |
| Module: Data-led Decision Making |

This module complements the "Insight from Data" module and focuses on how businesses can use data to make better decisions. In this module we look at how using data can reduce risk and how risk can be managed within a project. Students will also learn about policies and practices for managing employment relations including issues relating to equality and diversity.